About the Cover: The women walked to the tomb and fretted about who would roll away the stone. They arrived and saw the stone had been rolled away already. An angel then spoke to them and said, "He has risen" (Mark 16:6). Those were the very words the women needed to hear. Those are the same words we need to hear often to remind us of Jesus' promise of His resurrection for our salvation. "He is risen indeed! Alleluia!"
