HOLY COMMUNION

TO OUR GUESTS AND MEMBERS: We receive the Lord's Supper, believing the Word of Jesus, that He gives us His true body and blood, miraculously united to the bread and wine, to eat and to drink for the forgiveness of sins, and to strengthen our union with Him and with one another. Our Lord invites to His table those who trust His Word, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love one another, even as He forgives and loves us. God's Word teaches us that those who eat and drink our Lord's body and blood in an unworthy manner do so to their great harm, and that this Holy Communion is a confession of the faith that is confessed in this church. Therefore any who are not yet instructed or are members of a congregation not in fellowship with the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod, are asked to kindly refrain from partaking of the sacrament until you have an opportunity to speak with the pastor.
(Matt. 5:23f.; 10:32f.; 18:15-35; 26:26-28; 1Cor. 10:16-21; 11:17-34)

About the Cover: There are shepherds, and then there are shepherds. Jesus is a special kind of shepherd. He says, "I am the good shepherd" (John 10:11). He means that He is the perfect shepherd. He knows what we, His sheep, need, and He knows how to provide for us. Not only does He lead us to eternal life, but He feeds us on the way. Therefore, we join the psalmist who wrote, "The Lord is my shepherd" (Psalm 23:1).
