About the Cover: "Breakfast on the beach is a welcome meal for fishermen who have been working all night to no avail. Here, the risen Lord Himself provides for them, as His simple word to throw the net on the other side of the boat brings in 153 fish. Indeed, all that we have, in body and soul, is granted to us by our Lord's providing. This is especially so as our risen Savior invites us to the meal of His very body and blood, given and shed for us.
